

1° Entrance terms

Nobody is authorized to enter, settle or stay on a campsite without previous authorization of the manager or his representative who has to make sure that the campsite is correctly held and that the rules and regulations are respected.

Staying on the campsite involves that you are willing to accept and fulfill the disposals of these rules and regulations.

2° Police formalities

Any person who has to stay at least one night on the campsite would have to produce his identity papers to the manager or his representative and carry out the police formalities.

Young persons without their parents will only be accepted upon presentation of authorization from the manager.

3° Settling

Tent, caravan as well as any other equipment relating to would be mounted on the pitch indicated by the camp manager or his representative.

4° Information centre

Open from 9 AM to 12 AM and from 14 PM to 19 PM.

The information centre will provide all useful information concerning camp-facilities, possibilities of fresh supplies, sport facilities, interesting sights and usefull addresses. A complaints book or a special box dedicated to receive the complaints is at campers' disposal. Complaints will only be taken into consideration if they are signed, dated, written as much as possible in distinct terms and concern quite recent events.

5° Taxes

Taxes will be paid to the Information Centre. Their amount is stuck up at the campsite entry and at the Information Centre and depends on the number of nights spent on site. Campers will have to inform the Information Centre the day before their leaving. If campers want to leave the campsite before the opening of the Information Centre, they will have to pay taxes the day before.

6° Noise and silence

Campers are required to avoid any noise and talks which may disturb their neighbours, and to turn down their radios and tape recorders. Please close your door and boots smoothly. Dogs and other animals are only allowed if kept on a lead. They can't be left alone on the campsite, even locked in, when their masters who are responsible for them. Complete silence between 10:30p.m. and 9a.m. is required.

7° Visitors

After being authorized by the manager or his representative, visitors will be allowed to enter the campsite under campers' responsibility.

Campers are allowed to greet one or few visitors at the Information Centre. If these visitors are allowed to enter the campsite, the camper who greet them could have to pay a tax, insofar as the visitor have free access to services and / or the campsite fittings. This tax is stuck up at the campsite entry and at the Information Centre.

Visitors' cars are not allowed on the campsite.

8° Traffic and parking

Inside the campsite speed is limited at 10 km/h.

No traffic between 11pm and 8am is allowed.

Only campers staying on the campsite can drive inside the camping. Parking on tent or caravan pitches is strictly forbidden and moreover should not disturb the traffic or newcomers settling.

9° Keeping and look of the camp fittings

Everybody will have to respect the cleanliness and the hygiene of the campsite. Don't throw dirty water on the ground or in the gutters. Caravaners must throw away their sewage at appropriate places.

Put household refuse, seraps of any kind and papers into bins.

Everybody will avoid any action which could prejudice the campsite cleanliness, hygiene and aspect as well as its services and more precisely its sanitary fittings.

Washing outside appropriate sinks is strictly forbidden.

If necessary, hanging out the washing could be done in the drying room. However it is allowed until 10 am near the tents and caravans providing it will not bother the neighbours. Do take care of trees, plants and flowers. Campers are not allowed to hammer in nails into trees, to eul branches or to plant out. Do not mark off pitches by yourself. Do not dig into the ground. Any damage made on plants, fences, campsite or fittings will be plaid by the offender. The pitch used during the stay will be kept in the state the camper found it when he arrived.

10° Security

a) Fire

Open fires (wood, charcoal, etc.) are prohibited. Stoves must be kept in good state of running and mustn't be used in hazardous conditions. In case of fire, let the camp manager being informed immediately. Fire extinguishers are at everybody's disposal.

A first-aid kit is available at the Information Centre.

b) Theft

Management is responsible for things left in the Information Centre's cares and is also liable for the general surveillance of the campsite. Campers remain responsible for their own installation and have to let the manager being informed of any suspect presence. Though the campsite is watched over, campers are required to take care of their equipment.

11° Games

No violent or disturbing game is allowed close to the campsite facilities.

The meeting room can only be used for quiet games. Parents will always have to watch over their children.

12° Unoccupied tents and caravans

Unoccupied tents or caravans should be left on the campingsite only after camp's manager approval and on the pitch notified. When caravans or tents are permanently left on the campsite, a tax will have to be paid whose amount is indicated at the Information centre.

13° Information

These rules and regulations are stuck an the campsite entry and at the Information Centre. They can be delivered to any customer on request.

14° Infringement to these rules and regulations

In case one camper would disturb the stay of the other campers or would not respect the disposals of these rules and regulations, the manager or his representative could give him format notice, orally or if necessary in writing, to stop the disturbances.

In case of serious or repeated infringement to these rules and regulations after normal notice made by the manager to conform to, he would have the right to cancel the contract.

In case of penal infringement, the manager may call the Police.